Pre-employment Screening

Condor is proud to announce the opening of new courses in the field of pre-employment screening. These courses are designed for professionals seeking to pursue a career in investigation or intelligence, corporate security, law enforcement agencies and private detective services.

It is of vital importance for organizations, multi national companies, and security departments to effectively select manpower that will be directly and/or indirectly connected to the respective organization. Failure to correct pre-employment screening may very well lead to destructive consequences within the organization at the financial, political, industrial, commercial espionage level.

These topics are listed in a generalized version and are not in a chronological order. The list does not include sub topics:

- Phase one: screening model
 - Screening models
 - Preliminary applicants screening
 - Applicants screening tools
 - Employees screening

- Phase two: integrity interview
 - Introduction to interview
 - The interviewer's approach
 - Questions and answers
 - Overview

- Phase three: analysis of information
 - Introduction to detection of deception
 - Detection in verbal communication
 - Detection in non-verbal communication - body language
 - Detection of deception - practicum
 - Simulations
