

Israeli Methods of Security

A unique 30 minutes documentary that takes you into the intensive
Israeli fight against terrorism

This documentary is a reflection of why Israel is considered one of the top leading nations in the fight against terrorism. This documentary takes you into the Israeli world of security and combat training as it is thought to professionals working in this field.

See live rigorous training by elite security personnel in combat shooting, anti terrorism, executive VIP protection, self defense, anti-kidnapping and much more.

Israeli Methods of Security is an unforgettable experience for those seeking to view the most realistic training and operational methods in security.